

It is necessary to test portable phones at the store before purchasing because not all machines are loud enough for my hearing loss. I also need to know if it works well with my hearing aid and with my cochlear implant. It is a waste of money if I sign a contract and can't use the phone. Thank You.